

Quiz: Signs of child-on-child sexual violence and sexual harassment

1. What are some behavioural changes that may indicate that a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) Increased academic performance
 - b) Withdrawal, anxiety, depression, aggression, or disruption
 - c) More socialising with peers

2. What are some physical signs that may indicate that a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) Increased height and weight
 - b) Unexplained injuries or bruises, sexually transmitted infections, or injuries to the genital area
 - c) No physical signs are present

3. What is an example of inappropriate sexual behaviour that a child may display if they have experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) Playing with age-appropriate toys
 - b) Displaying age-appropriate sexual curiosity
 - c) Displaying sexual behaviour that is inappropriate for their age or development

4. What is an example of sexualised language that a child may use if they have experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) Talking about schoolwork
 - b) Using sexually explicit language or making inappropriate comments or jokes
 - c) Talking about hobbies and interests

5. What are some changes in a child's social behaviour that may indicate that they have experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) More participation in group activities
 - b) More involvement in extracurricular activities
 - c) Social isolation and avoiding spending time with peers

Quiz: Signs of child-on-child sexual violence and sexual harassment

6. What is an example of a physical sign that may indicate a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) They are more talkative than usual
 - b) They are more outgoing and social
 - c) They display unexplained injuries or bruises on their body

7. What is an example of a behavioural change that may indicate a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) They are more focused and engaged in school
 - b) They become more distant from their friends and family
 - c) They become more interested in sports and physical activities

8. What is an example of a change in academic performance that may indicate a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) Their grades improve significantly
 - b) Their grades decline significantly
 - c) There is no change in their academic performance

9. What is an example of a social isolation behaviour that may indicate a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) They start hanging out with a different group of friends
 - b) They avoid school altogether
 - c) They stop participating in group activities they previously enjoyed

10. What is an example of a bullying behaviour that may indicate a child has experienced child-on-child sexual violence or sexual harassment?
 - a) They stand up for their friends when they are being bullied
 - b) They become the victim of bullying themselves
 - c) They start to bully others more frequently

Quiz: Signs of child-on-child sexual violence and sexual harassment

Answers:

1. b) Withdrawal, anxiety, depression, aggression or disruption
2. b) Unexplained injuries or bruises, sexually transmitted infections or injuries to the genital area
3. c) Displaying sexual behaviour that is inappropriate for their age or development
4. b) Using sexually explicit language or making inappropriate comments or jokes
5. c) Social isolation and avoiding spending time with peers
6. c) They display unexplained injuries or bruises on their body
7. b) They become more distant from their friends and family
8. b) Their grades decline significantly
9. c) They stop participating in group activities they previously enjoyed
10. b) They become the victim of bullying themselves